amounted to 112,652 pounds.

RICHMOND THE PLACE.

Major W. T. Sutherlin and Captain Harry Wooding, members of the State Democratic Committee, were seen by me to-day and both said in answer to questions that they regarded Richmond as the most available and the most appropriate place at which to hold the State Democratic Convention to elect delegates to the national convention.

Senator Hill is expected to pass through the city to-night, but at such an unseasonable hour that no one will be able to see him.

Mrs. J. D. Davis Passes Quietly Away.

MEMERININ, VA., March 19.—Mrs. J. D.
Davis, who has been lingering between life and death for several days, passed quietly away last night, in the 34th year of her age. Her funeral will be preached at 12 o'clock to-morrow by Rev. S. W. Eason, in the Wesleyan church, of which the deceased was a consistent member for many years.

Mrs. Davis was the beloved and third wife of Mr. John D. Davis, the largest farmer in this vicinity.
